

The University of Alabama Languages Conference

February 25-26 via Zoom

The organizing committee of the twelfth annual University of Alabama Languages Conference is pleased to welcome all abstract submissions for this year's conference to be held virtually on February 25-26, 2022.

“A Reunion of Languages”

We invite you to submit proposals for 20-minute individual presentations as well as organized panels with three or four participants. Suggestions for panels must include individual presenter's abstract along with a brief description of the panel theme (up to 300 words). Please submit abstracts of no more than 250 words to: ualanguagesconference@gmail.com by January 10th.

We invite abstracts about all languages and all areas of Literature and Linguistics, including, but not limited to:

- Classical Literature
- Renaissance Literature
- Medieval Literature and Culture
- Early Modern Literature and Culture
- 18th and 19th Century Literature and Culture
- 20th and 21st Century Literature and Culture
- Feminism and Women Writers
- Queer and Gender Studies
- Transatlantic and Intercultural Studies
- Storytelling, Mythology, and Memory
- Film and Visual arts
- Anthropological Linguistics
- Bilingualism and Code-switching
- Historical and Comparative Linguistics
- L1, L2, L3 Acquisition and Pedagogy
- Languages in Contact
- Non-verbal Communication, Sign Language
- Phonetics, Phonology, and Dialectology
- Pragmatics•Psycholinguistics
- Sociolinguistics
- Study Abroad
- Syntax
- TESOL

Presentations should be given in English, French, German or Spanish. For Linguistics, preference may be given to submissions whose studies can provide results. Contact us at ualanguagesconference@gmail.com.

Keynote speakers TBA.